

Agenda

Professional Development Sessions

Friday, April 12, at Cabrillo College (Aptos) | Friday, April 19, at Chabot College (Hayward)
Friday, April 26, at College of Marin (Kentfield)

Objectives:

- College faculty learn key differences in teaching high school students
- College faculty can adjust pedagogy and classroom management to serve high school students
- K-12 and community college partners have tools to create guidelines for behavior, health, instructor obligations, and other issues that arise in dual enrollment programs
- Region has resources for continuing professional development related to dual enrollment

Timeline:

8:00 - 8:30 a.m. Check In

8:30 a.m. Welcome, introductions and goals for the day

9:00 - 10:25 a.m. Pedagogy and Classroom Management 101

10:25 - 10:40 a.m. BREAK

10:40 - 11:50 a.m. Breakout sessions (choose one)

- Pedagogy and Classroom Management with Special Populations
- Connection and Communication in K-12-Community College Partnerships

11:50 a.m. - 12:25 p.m. Federal privacy law and data sharing

12:25 - 12:30 p.m. Closing and next steps

12:30 p.m. Lunch and networking

Presenters:

Naomi Castro, Director, Career Ladders Project

Amal Amanda Issa, Senior Program Manager, Career Ladders Project

Mary Soltis, Instructor, Cabrillo College