Land Acknowledgement

We, CaCN, begin this webinar by acknowledging our presence on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territories of indigenous peoples throughout the state of California.

We pay our respects to the ancestors, elders, and our relations past, present, and emerging of the lands from where we all gather today.

We encourage everyone joining us to continue to learn about the traditional land caretakers where your college is located and work to be in good relation with them.

Questions or Comments?

Please add you questions in the Chat using this format:

Name of speaker: Your question

Example: Benjamin - How do you...?

Today's Discussion

Data and Accountability: Accountability, in this context, is connected to the college's goals, benchmarks and student progress as outlined in various initiatives and legislation.

- How do we contribute to it?
- How are we using data to frame our work and work toward equity goals?

Caseload Models: There has been a lot of discussion about the counselor's role in supporting students in Guided Pathways.

- What are your thoughts, experience, and your questions that you have about the counselor's role in supporting students through a caseload model?

The Pandemic and Beyond

- Any advice for counselors new to the field?
