

Vision 2030: Access, Success & Support with Equity for High School and Justice Involved Youth

Transforming education for all high school students, starting in 9th grade. Join a two-day convening exploring dual enrollment's vital role, including opportunities for justice involved youth.

Dr. Wolde-Ab Isaac
Chancellor
Riverside CCD

Dr. Claire Oliveros
President
Riverside City College

Dr. Daisy Gonzales
Deputy Chancellor
California Community Colleges

Agenda

Day 1

- 8:30 AM - Check In & Breakfast
- 9:30 AM - Welcome, Featured Speakers & Panels
- 12:30 PM - Lunch & Afternoon Workshops
 - Dual enrollment 101
 - Serving Justice Impacted Youth 101
- 2:00 PM - End of Workshops

Day 2

- 8:30 AM - Check In & Breakfast
- 9:30 AM - Welcome, Featured Speakers, Team Time & Breakout Session 1*
- 11:55 AM - Lunch
- 12:55 PM - Breakout Session 2* & 3*
- 3:15 PM - Team Time
- 4:00 PM - End of team time

Day 2 Breakout Sessions: Teaching on the inside: culturally relevant curricula and pedagogy and establishing a college culture for detained youth, Neural plasticity of psychological development and diverse learning abilities for justice involved youth, Using Data to identify equity gaps in dual enrollment, Effective youth transition strategies from detention to college campuses post-release, Supporting priority populations in dual enrollment: Umoja, Foster Youth and Food and Housing Insecure Students, Planning Dual Enrollment Pathways, Integrating credible messengers to support youth development, Brain development and dual enrollment success strategies, and MORE!*

Who Should Attend: Day 1 - executive leadership of education institutions and institutions or organizations serving high school students in dual enrollment, including justice involved youth.

Day 1 and 2 - practitioners serving high school students in dual enrollment, including justice involved youth, this may include coordinators, directors, counselors, instructors, and case managers.

Thursday, March 14, 2024
Coil School for the Arts, RCC Satellite
Friday, March 15, 2024
Riverside City College

Register Here!

