

EQUITY GROUNDED COUNSELING

Serving Black Students

4-PART WEBINAR SERIES

Register Today:

[https://zoom.us/webinar/register/6816098174543/
WN_hAMzphl2TV6aWnC3YakyHQ](https://zoom.us/webinar/register/6816098174543/WN_hAMzphl2TV6aWnC3YakyHQ)

EMPATHY AS A TOOL FOR EQUITY

JANUARY 29TH
8:30 - 10:00 AM

DECONSTRUCTING THE PROCESS OF CAREER AND EDUCATIONAL PLANNING

FEBRUARY 5TH
8:30 - 10:00 AM

ADDRESSING BASIC NEEDS IN EDUCATIONAL COUNSELING ENVIRONMENTS

FEBRUARY 19TH
8:30 - 10:00 AM

MAINTAINING AN EQUITY FOCUS IN THE FACE OF OPPRESSIVE STRUCTURES

FEBRUARY 26TH
8:30 - 10:00 AM

Dr. Adrean Askerneese
Counseling Faculty
MiraCosta College

Devon Boone, LCSW
CARE Manager
MiraCosta College

Dr. James Canady
Counseling Faculty
Grossmont College

Selam Gebrekristos, MS, LMFT
Counselor & Coordinator
EOPS/Next Up Program
San Diego City College

Jonathan Henderson, MA
Regional Coordinator
Umoja Community
Education Foundation

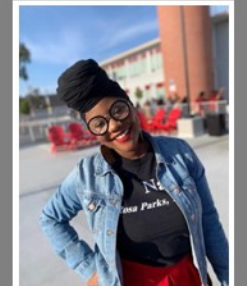

Don Love, MA
Umoja Counselor/
Coordinator
MiraCosta College

Nicole Jones, MS, MFT
Dean, Counseling Services
Cuymaca College

Dr. Wendy Stewart
Dean, Counseling &
Student Development
MiraCosta College

Mercedes Tiggs, LCSW
Umoja Co-Coordinator/
EOPS Counselor
Palomar College

This series is specifically designed for those working in community college counseling offices to gain a deeper understanding of the experience of Black students in counseling and career environments, identify the currents of anti-Black racism in traditional structures, and discuss ways that we can individually and systemically effectively enact change.

Sponsored by:

